For the first time in the Need for Speed franchise, you'll choose how you move around the open world and what to drive. You can even play as a ghost and watch the race from the sidelines. You can also play online with up to seven other players, race your friends and the world on the Global Leaderboard. With a new, intuitive car handling system, cars become an extension of your hands and feel alive under your fingertips. Driven by licensed producers Ghost and Moa, and featuring the legendary cars from the 1980s and 1990s, Need for Speed Payback delivers the most authentic and fun racing experience. You choose how to move around the open world. In Need for Speed Payback, there are no restrictive lanes. You choose how you want to navigate the open world. You can be an old-school drifter and drive a vehicle without a top, you can be an off-roader and drive over muddy terrain, you can be a road-hog and cruise up the highway. You can even go off-road and shred mountain trails. You can even play as a ghost. Play as a Ghost For the first time in the Need for Speed franchise, Need for Speed Payback offers a revolutionary new way to play. While the other racers are racing, you can play as a ghost. This is a must-have feature for those looking to keep things fair. After all, if you choose to drive for the opposition, you can't win. You get more time to unlock your favorites.
